

Hugh Gorman Elected for Second Term as President of BOMA Canada

Ottawa, ON – Hugh Gorman, Vice President, Eastern Canada, Oxford Properties Group, has been named 2005 President of the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) Canada – representing the Canadian commercial real estate industry. Mr. Gorman has been elected for a second term.

“My primary objective is to ensure that BOMA Canada continues to be the voice of the commercial real estate industry and effectively represents the industry on issues that significantly impact our membership, both individuals and companies alike. We will provide leadership, resources and tools, enabling our members to deal with the ever-changing demands on the industry. We will focus on the areas of education and environmental stewardship and will achieve this through partnerships with the nine local BOMA Associations across Canada, other professional industry organizations and through our relationships with governmental agencies,” said Gorman.

Having obtained his real estate sales license in 1988 and Honours Bachelor of Commerce Degree from Carleton University, Gorman has worked in the brokerage industry specializing in investment properties and limited partnerships. Gorman holds a multi-disciplinary real estate background having held senior real estate Leasing, Asset Management, Development and Property Management positions representing many national real estate companies and institutional owners.

He is actively involved in the Building Owners and Managers Association in leadership roles as a member of BOMA Québec and BOMA Canada. During his earlier involvement with BOMA Ottawa he served as chair of the Nominations, Planning & Policy and Audit Committees and as an officer holding the positions of Treasurer, Vice President and was President from 1999 to 2001. He has served on the national Board of Directors of BOMA Canada and was actively involved in the completion of the new BOMA Canada strategic plan. He was elected Secretary-Treasurer of BOMA Canada in 2002 and Vice-President in 2003.

Rounding out BOMA Canada's slate of officers is: Vice President Esther Paterson, RPA, President, Lombard Place Limited of Winnipeg, Manitoba; Secretary/Treasurer Ken Loeppky, CPM General Manager, Regina Research Park of Regina, Saskatchewan; and Past President, Margaret Dreher, RPA, Vice-President of Operations / Western Canada, O & Y Enterprise, of Calgary, Alberta.

The Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of Canada is comprised of over 2000 members in strong local associations in each major region in Canada, representing over 500 million square feet of office space in Canada. Members include building owners, managers, developers, facilities managers, asset managers, leasing agents and brokers, investors and service providers.

BOMA Canada represents the Canadian commercial real estate industry on matters of national concern, promotes excellence in the industry through information, education and recognition, and, in conjunction with BOMA International provides recognized industry standards and research.
